Call For Papers

The scientific conference of the Laboratory of Biology and Physiology of Organisms (LBPO) at the Faculty of Biological Sciences (USTHB) provides a unique opportunity to showcase the scientific work of the laboratory's members, particularly its doctoral students. This event will also serve as an opportunity to review the laboratory's activities and scientific advances.

On the agenda

- ✓ Plenary lectures
- ✓ Oral communications
- ✓ Posters

On this occasion, we are calling on LBPO members (faculty members and doctoral students) to submit abstracts for their oral or poster presentations.
